[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] MAY 21, 1877. If any election had taken place to-day in the city, and all the colored delegations from a distance had been suffered to vote, the usual Conservative majority would have been decidedly diminished. In other words, Whitsuntide brought to the town from all the surrounding counties, villages, and cities one of the most immense colored crowds that ever promenaded through the streets, perspired in the shade, or quaffed lemonade for the cooling of the inner man. Several colored fairs are in active progress as the means of entertaining these guests. a close. It is to their credit that no breach, even the slightest, of the peace and dignity of the city has occurred during this visitation. Several of the delegates to the celebration of the Queen's birthday by the British Association of Virginia have arrived already, including St. Andrew, to whom the main credit of the enterprise is justly ascribed, though other officials have done their full part, and displayed the utmost liberality and vigor. It is known already that the celebration will be one of the grandest events that ever marked the history of the city.

Yesterday morning the house and store occupied by Mr. A. M. Wall, on Halifax street, were de-troved by a fire of mysterious origin. The destruction was only partial, and the stock was considerably damaged by both fire and water. The house was insured for $1.500 in the Virginia Home Insurance Company, and the stock for $1,350-$800 in the Virginia State and $500 in the Pennsylvania Fire Company. Some of the delegates to the Episcopal

The stockholders of the Bristol and Cumberland Gaprailroad (narrow-gauge), in pursuance to previous notice, held a meeting in Goodson yesterday the 17th for the purpose of organizing and for the election of officers. There was quite a large number of the substantial citizens of Bristol-Goodson present, together with several of the citizens of Scott county, in which county, as well as in our midst, a very deep interest is felt in the speedy building of the road. The meeting was organized by the calling of Rev. Dr. David Sullins, president of "Sullins" College, to the chair, and the appointment of I. C. Fowler, Esq., as sec-

It is only just to say that the members of the Council, especially those who have been on important committees, have discharged their duties this year with more comfort than ever before in the history of the Council, and this, too, when there has been such of the members has been due to the fact that in the immediate vicinity of the church (in the chapel and lecture-rooms) there are several ante-rooms, which were bountifully supplied with tables, chairs, and stationery of all sorts. The ambassadors of Gerpresence of Duke De Cazes would make a change appear as one simply affecting internal politics, whilst his retirement would give the Cabinet an anti-Liberal character disquieting for the religious policy of the two countries.

The representatives of Spain and Portugal expressed fear lest the withdrawal of Duke de Cazes might give the Cabinet character to encourage the ideas of partisans of legitimistism and absolutism. It must be remembered that Don Carlos recently had a long interview with Miguel, the Portugese pretender, and has also published a menacing letter in favor of the Fueros.

LIKE INTENTIONS AT BATOUM.

LONDON, May 21 .- The Telegraph's dispatch from Batoum, dated Saturday morning, says: "The Russian forces are making a great show of warlike intentions. Yesterday they contented themselves with a harmless artillery duel. The fact was, the enemy had sent off nifteen battalions in the direction of Sukum Keleh in the hope of arresting the insurrection about to spread from that centre. The defences of Batoum are quite unimpaired, and the position leaves nothing to desire. The issue of the next assault is looked upon as a pretty cer-
